An index designed to generate income from dividends, special dividends, and share repurchases derived from global equity positions in natural resource and commodity related industries.

The Case for Natural Resources Dividend Income

- Cash Flow Monsters - Thanks to rising energy and commodity prices, natural resource and commodity-related companies are generating excessive amounts of free cash flow that are returned in the form of dividends and shareholder yield.
- A Play on the Energy Transition - The diversified index is composed of companies operating in both legacy fossil fuel companies and companies producing critical materials essential for clean energy.
- Commodity Income Supercycle - Recent world and market conditions, coupled with years of underinvestment, have spurred a commodity income supercycle. High energy and commodity prices appear here to stay for many years to come, creating an income opportunity for investors.
- Global Income Tied to Inflation, but Not Subject to Foreign Tax Withholding - By investing in U.S.-traded ADR or OTC-listed share versions of global natural resource, commodity-related companies, investors can receive inflation-aligned income, not subject to foreign tax withholding.
